

Support the Company

The Elite Theatre Company, Oxnard's award-winning community theater company, is dedicated to enhancing the artistic health of the community by cultivating the theatrical talents of local amateur and semi-professional artists.

Founded in 1994, E.T.C. is a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization, run almost entirely by volunteers. The Artistic Director, box office attendants, production crew, set designers and board members all donate their time and talents to produce Elite's five-show season. The talented actors you see on stage are also unpaid, sometimes dedicating as many as twelve weeks per show, including rehearsal time, for the opportunity to perform here at the Petit Playhouse.

As much as we value our season subscribers and individual ticket holders, it is no secret that ticket sales in the arts account for only a portion of annual revenue. The support that really makes it all happen comes from donations above and beyond—from people like you.

Please consider a tax-deductible donation to the Elite Theatre Company, and make a commitment to quality arts programming in our community. All donors of $50 or more will receive recognition in our annual program book.
